Chonda Pierce: Enough

Chonda Pierce has built her career by being “real” – sharing her heart, talking about difficult issues, and blending it all with humor, insight and self examination. Her vulnerability and wit have made Chonda Pierce the #1 selling female comedian in history (2014 RIAA Lifetime Achievement Award).

Coming out of the hit Fathom Event and best-selling DVD, Laughing In The Dark, Chonda continues her journey – and the journey of every woman - in a new documentary release simply titled Enough.

It is Chonda's prayer that the new film will help women move forward from their past, to connect or re-connect with themselves. And through a discovery of who they are in Christ, they can learn that the pieces of their lives can be put back together again. It's a film of great hope and encouragement, with Chonda's usual quick wit and incomparable story telling weaved throughout.

Think about it. Today more than ever, it seems that women from every walk are feeling socially disconnected, despite the insane amount of conversation and connection taking place on social media spaces -- some say it's really only an illusion of being connected.

Imagine. Enough in nearly 1,000 theaters in April, a gathering of over 150,000 women sharing many of the same life experiences, laughing, crying and cheering with Chonda. It could be the start of women reaching out to other women, becoming a true friend, connecting to God in a new way or maybe even for the very first time.

Ultimately, it's Chonda's hope that the film will show that Christ is THE “enough”, and propel women (and a few brave men) of any age, to begin a new, more fulfilling life journey.
